

CESES FSV UK event

The Conference was being held under the presidency of Spain in the EU Council.

On the occasion of the European Day and the 10th anniversary of the CESES FSV UK in Prague, outgoing Minister for European Affairs Juraj Chmiel spoke as one of the key speakers at the conference on "the Lisbon Treaty and the future of the European security policy". The event, under the patronage of the Minister for European Affairs, was held on Thursday, 6th May 2010 at the Chamber of Deputies. Juraj Chmiel had an introductory speech on the Lisbon Treaty and the EU security policy during the morning program.

In addition, a number of distinguished guests from the Czech Republic and abroad participated at the event.

Europe House
Jungmannova 24, 111 21 Praha 1
email: comm-rep-czech@ec.europa.eu

OTÁZKY

TÝKAJÍCÍ SE

From left: Martin Barták, outgoing Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Defense of the Czech Republic, Juraj Chmiel, outgoing Minister for European Affairs of the Czech Republic

THE LISBON TREATY and the Future of the European Security Policy

From left: H.E. Arturo Laclaustra Beltrán, Ambassador of Spain to the Czech Republic, Martin Pecina, outgoing Minister of Interior of the Czech Republic

PhDr. Miloš Balabán Ph.D., Head of the Center for Security Policy CESES FSS CU and main organizer of the conference

From left: Prof. Eduard Gombár, Director, Institute of Middle East and African Studies, Faculty of Arts CU, Captain (SPN) Ignacio García Sánchez, Deputy Director of the Instituto Español de Estudios Estratégicos

IN COOPERATION WITH LEADERS MAGAZINE

Distinguished audience - front left: Antonio Álvarez Barthe, Deputy Political Director, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Spain, Pedro Villena Pérez, Deputy Director General for Maghreb Affairs, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Spain, Captain (SPN) Ignacio García Sánchez, Deputy Director of the Instituto Español de Estudios Estratégicos, Milan Dvořák, Director of the European Center for Helicopter Support, LOM Prague, Luboš Dobrovský, former Minister of Defense of the Czech Republic

more photos and electronic version available on www.leadersmagazine.cz